

EVIDENCE FOR CLIMATE ACTION CONVENING AGENDA

Wednesday, July 24, 2024 | 8:30 am - 3:30 pm ET

Kimpton Marlowe Hotel

25 Edwin H Land Blvd, Cambridge, MA 02141

AGENDA
8:30–9:00 am	Continental Breakfast
9:00–9:30 am	Introduction to J-PAL resources and collaboration opportunities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Kim Dadisman (J-PAL North America, Associate Director of Policy) • Peter Christensen (University of California, Santa Cruz; Economics of Decarbonization Working Group Lead) • Erin Graeber (J-PAL North America Environment, Energy, and Climate Change Sector Lead)
9:30–10:30 am	Decarbonization research lightning talks <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Making the case for rigorous evaluation in decarbonization • Improving the cost-effectiveness and equitability of IRA/BIL investments • A research agenda for transportation decarbonization • Plumbing the Inflation Reduction Act
10:30–11:00 am	Coffee break
11:00 am–12:15 pm	Exploring researcher-government partnerships <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • San Diego County, California - Scoping Climate Action Plan evaluation opportunities • King County, Washington - Improving access to energy retrofit programs among low-income communities • Bay Area Metropolitan Transportation Commission, San Francisco - Incentivizing active and shared travel
12:15–1:15 pm	Lunch
1:15–3:15 pm (break at 2:15)	Breakout sessions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Session A – Recruiting policy partners • Session B – Structuring matchmaking opportunities • Session C – Supporting program scoping and project proposal development • Session D – Building policy partner capacity
3:15–3:30 pm	Convening Close